

Little Colonel Players
June 2023
Children's Theatre Workshop
June 19 through June 23, 2023
For children ages 7 to 14

This workshop will be led by Mr. Colson Rich who teaches theatre and mass media at Oldham County High School. He also heads up the drama club at OCHS! Colson Rich has spent most of his life involved in theater at various capacities. He studied Theater at the University of Kentucky with an emphasis on performance and directing. He has since gone on to teach a variety of theater classes, direct productions, and run the drama club at Oldham County High School. His background is primarily rooted in Anne Bogart's Viewpoints method of theater, which will be the major focus of the summer workshop at LCP. Those that attend the camp can count on being exposed to the fundamental language and process of approaching theater with creativity. Students will be exposed to a variety of activities that strengthen their confidence in performance as well as giving them the tools to focus their creativity into effective theater. We at LCP are so excited to have Colson Rich join us for this wonderful learning experience for our young ones.

The workshop will be conducted from 1:00 to 4:30. On Friday evening June 23, a small presentation will be given by the children to demonstrate what they've learned. (No admission fee)

Questions about the workshop may be directed to 502-241-9906.

Space is limited! Registration form must be received no later than June 14, 2023.
