KENTUCKY Arts COUNCIL The Kentucky Arts Council, the state arts agency, provides operating support to The Little Colonel Players with state tax dollars and federal funding from the National Endowment for the Arts.

Become a donor and help us continue to produce top notch shows.

LCP is a 501 (c) 3 charitable organization. Donations are generally tax deductible. Our aging building requires updating at times and can put a strain on the budget. The Board of Directors assures you that any donation will be used judiciously. We survive largely on our ticket sales, but contributions do help to defray the added costs. Please consider becoming a donor and help LCP continue to produce top notch shows in our second sixty years!

The Diary Of Anne Frank

A Play by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett
Based on Anne Frank: The Diary of a Young Girl
Newly Adapted by Wendy Kesselman
Directed by Chase Noffsinger

Anne Frank emerges from history a living, lyrical, intensely gifted young girl, who confronts her rapidly changing life and the increasing horror of her time with astonishing honesty, wit, and determination. A drama about the lives of eight people hiding from the Nazis in a concealed storage attic, The Diary Of Anne Frank captures the claustrophobic realities of their daily existence—their fear, their hope, their laughter, their grief. Each day of these two dark years, Anne's voice shines through: "When I write I shake off all my cares. But I want to achieve more than that. I want to be useful and bring enjoyment to all people, even those I've never met. I want to go on living even after my death!"

Ken Ludwig's The Three Musketeers

Adapted from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

By Ken Ludwig

Directed by Mike Price

This adaptation is based on the timeless swashbuckler by Alexandre Dumas, a tale of heroism, treachery, close escapes, and above all, honor. The story, set in 1625, begins with D'Artagnan, who sets off for Paris in search of adventure with Sabine, his mischievous younger sister. Sent with D'Artagnan to attend a convent school in Paris, she poses as a young man – D'Artagnan's servant – and quickly becomes entangled in her brother's adventures. Soon after reaching Paris, D'Artagnan encounters the greatest heroes of the day – Athos, Porthos, and Aramis, the famous musketeers – and he joins forces with his heroes to defend the honor of the Queen of France. Suitable for everyone.

All My Sons

By Arthur Miller

Directed by Clint Gill

During the war Joe Keller and Herbert Deever ran a machine shop which made airplane parts. Deever was sent to prison because the firm turned out defective parts, causing the deaths of many men. Keller went free and made a lot of money. The twin shadows of this catastrophe and the fact that the young Keller son was reported missing during the war dominate the action. The love affair of Chris Keller and Ann Deever, the bitterness of George Deever returned from the war to find his father in prison and his father's partner free, are all set in a structure of almost unbearable power. The climax, showing the reaction of a son to his guilty father, is a fitting conclusion to a play electrifying in its intensity. Suitable for everyone.

Tower by the Thames: A Musical Comedy

WORLD PREMIERE

Play and lyrics by Jack Wann, music by Reggie Van Stockum

Directed by Jack Wann

There's real magic in that Tower by the Thames! Meet American Egyptologist Reggie Wilson and his spunky, newly appointed London Museum curator daughter, Beth, as they decide to join forces with a famous ancient Roman playwright, newly arrived via the magic of the Tower. There, they round up a zany and elusive comic villain, recently escaped from one of the playwright's long lost plays. The 'imaginary' and the 'real' combine in a goofy, but thought provoking story. The outlandish characters and screwball chases, a blossoming love interest, and an offbeat but earnest understanding of what it really means to be free make Tower by the Thames a mysteriously musical, mighty and magical evening. Suitable for everyone.

The Wild Women of Winedale

By Jones, Hope, Wooten

Directed by Jay Padilla-Hayter

This touching comedy focuses on three women at crossroads in their lives – two sisters, Fanny and Willa Wild, of Winedale, Virginia, and their frustratingly quirky sister-in-law Johnnie Faye. This feisty and fun-loving trio has supported and cheered one another through life's highs and lows through the years, including the early demise of two of their husbands. And they really need each other now. With equal doses of hilarity and heart, these extraordinary women come up with delightful and surprisingly unorthodox ways to clear the clutter from their lives, their homes and their relationships. Together they prove it's never too late to take another one of life's paths for a grand new adventure. Suitable for everyone.

A Visit From St. Nicholas or The Night Before Christmas

by Lowell Swartzell

Directed by Bailey Story

On Christmas Eve, 1822, Clement Clarke Moore's house is not as quiet as a mouse—in fact, everyone is stirring. The three children await the arrival of St. Nicholas. Mother and Father arise thinking they hear intruders. Cousin Harriet enlists the children to copy the poem their father has just written for them, which she hopes to have published for all young people to enjoy. But Father, as a distinguished professor who fears being known as a poet for children, burns the poem so it can never leave the house. Heartbroken, the children unite to save the poem for posterity by improvising it through a riotous enactment. How they convince their father that his verses should be shared with children everywhere brings about the hilarious, happy ending. Suitable for everyone.
